JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on PROBATION for a term of: 2 YEARS

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline §5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine in addition to restitution.

The Court has found that the property identified in the preliminary order of forfeiture is subject to forfeiture. The preliminary order is incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Khanh Kim Nguyen, is hereby placed on probation on each of Counts 1 and 3 of the 4-Count Indictment for a term of 2 years, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of probation, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall participate for a period of six months in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, Alcohol Monitoring Unit or automated identification system and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall pay the costs of Location Monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall perform 200 hours of community service, as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
8. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving loan programs without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall submit person and property to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause.
10. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office within 72 hours of his placement on probation.
11. The defendant shall not possess, have under the defendant's control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state, or local law.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

On the government's motion, all remaining counts are dismissed.

Bond is exonerated.
